

How the GOP tax bills hurt New Mexico

Both bills increase taxes on many working- and middle-class families

- 73,000 filers in the bottom 80% of the income distribution in New Mexico would see a tax hike in 2027 in the House bill¹⁸⁷
- 240,300 filers in the bottom 80% of the income distribution in New Mexico would see a tax hike in 2027 in the Senate bill¹⁸⁸

The tax bills cut Medicare, lead to coverage losses, and increase health care premiums¹⁸⁹

- The House bill would cut $135 million from Medicare next year in New Mexico
- By 2025, there would be 90,000 more uninsured people in New Mexico
- A typical, unsubsidized family of four in New Mexico would see marketplace premiums increase by an extra $1,660 in 2019

Key deductions for residents in New Mexico are at risk of being eliminated¹⁹⁰

- 53,193 filers in New Mexico claimed an average of $9,337 in medical expense deductions in 2014
- 59,743 filers in New Mexico claimed an average of $964 in student loan interest deductions in 2014

Housing would become more expensive

- 206,180 filers in New Mexico claimed an average of $6,885 in state and local tax deductions in 2014¹⁹¹
- Home prices would fall more than 10% in the short term¹⁹²
